

Terms of Service

If you have a contract with Fujitsu Japan, please access to <https://globalcloud.fujitsu.com.au/portala/ctrl/sopTermsFJa> and agree with the documents.

Chapter 1 (General provisions)

Article 1 (Terms and conditions)

The purpose of the document is that Fujitsu Limited (hereinafter "We") defines the terms and conditions for the FUJITSU Cloud Service S5 (hereinafter referred to as "Service") which is under development to give the trial user the trial user license.

Article 2 (Definition)

The following words and expressions shall for the purpose of this terms and conditions have the following meanings.

- (1) "User" shall mean the person who have agreed and concluded the trial Terms of Service agreement (hereinafter "service trial agreement").
- (2) "The public home page for this service" shall mean our internet web pages for the service confirmation.
- (3) "The home page for this service" shall mean our internet web pages limited to the trial service users.
- (4) "Trial ID" shall mean the login ID and password for the registered users to login into the home page for service for the trial.

Article 3 (Policy Change)

This "terms and conditions" is subject to change without notice. The users shall accept this. In this case, trial terms and conditions is due to the changed one.

Chapter 2 (Services)

Article 4 (provided for this service)

1. We shall aim to offer the trial service for the feature of development under our service review, identifying problems, and insufficient improvement purposes, providing service users.

The user already understands that the is not liable to redress the functions which have lack of service which was requested from users.

2. The user shall aim to study the development under our service delivery capabilities after the commercialization of the services, and do not use the services for other purposes.

Article 5 (Contents of the service)

We offer service to the public home page display to users.

Chapter 3 (Trial services)

Article 6 (approval of the service trial agreement)

The service trial agreement is suppose to approve and submit our application form of our given after registration processing of 4 ID format for us because of the way our trial accept notification.

The service use applicant is terms of consent on the application to do, and at the time of the application services use applicant shall accept the terms of service.